

South Carolina's
REVOLUTIONARY RIVERS

South Carolinas Revolutionary Rivers® is a 66-mile National Recreation Trail following the scenic Lynches River from Lynches River County Park to the stomping grounds of Revolutionary War hero General Francis Marion. Marion's ability to simply disappear into the cypress and tupelo-laden swamplands with his militia earned him the name "Swamp Fox."
visitflo.com/revolutionary-rivers • 800-325-9005

Florence Convention & Visitors Bureau • 800-325-9005 • www.visitflo.com